III. LITIGATION HISTORY

The "three strikes rule" bars a prisoner from bringing a civil action or appeal forma pauperis in federal court if that prisoner has "on 3 or more occasions, while incarcerated or detained in any facility, brought an action or appeal in a court of the United States that was dismissed on the grounds that it is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, unless the prisoner is under imminent danger of serious physical injury." 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g).

A. Have you brought any other lawsuits in state or federal court dealing with the same facts involved in this case? Yes No

If yes, please describe _____

B. Have you brought any other lawsuits in federal court while incarcerated?

Yes No

C. If your answer to B is yes, how many? _____ Describe the lawsuit(s) below.

1. Name of Case, Court and Docket Number

2. Basic claim made _____

3. Disposition (That is, how did the case end? Was the case dismissed? Was it appealed? Is it still pending?) _____

For additional cases, provide the above information in the same format on a separate page.

IV. EXHAUSTION OF ADMINISTRATIVE REMEDIES

Prisoners must exhaust available administrative remedies before filing an action in federal court about prison conditions. 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a). You are not required to allege or prove exhaustion of administrative remedies in the complaint. However, your case must be dismissed if the defendants show that you have not exhausted your administrative remedies, or if lack of exhaustion is clear from the complaint and its attachments. You may attach copies of materials relating to exhaustion, such as grievances, appeals, and official responses. These materials are not required to file a complaint, but they may assist the court in understanding your claim.

A. Is there a grievance procedure available at your institution? Yes No

B. Have you filed a grievance concerning the facts relating to this complaint?

Yes No

If your answer is no, explain why not _____

C. Is the grievance process completed? Yes No no response
